

TITLE IV COMPLIANCE

TAKE THE WORRY OUT OF MEETING ANNUAL COMPLIANCE AND AUDIT REQUIREMENTS

As Student Financial Assistance (SFA) processing and compliance grow increasingly complex each year, the guidelines your organization have to meet can quickly become confusing. Our SFA-seasoned professionals relieve career colleges of this confusion and have done so for beauty schools and cosmetology, allied health schools and other for-profit schools nationwide.

FOCUS ON YOUR GROWTH AS WE HELP YOU MEET TITLE IV COMPLIANCE

All for-profit schools participating in Title IV aid programs must submit compliance and financial audits to the U.S. Department of Education on an annual basis.

Regardless of accreditation, whether that be regionally or nationally, career colleges rely on Sikich with the most common challenges facing them today. Our reviews and audits have helped post-secondary schools with such common challenges as Title IV Audits and provided solutions to various findings as a result.
