

Insight. Execution. Value creation.

Private equity firms operate in a fast-moving, highstakes environment where speed, precision and foresight matter. From deal sourcing through exit, every decision impacts returns. Today's landscape creates both complexity and opportunity, and success depends on having the right advisors at every stage of the investment lifecycle.

At Sikich, we partner with private equity firms to help drive value across portfolios. Our integrated team brings decades of experience working alongside sponsors, management teams and portfolio companies to deliver responsive, deal ready expertise and financial insight so you can move confidently from diligence to exit.

One provider to support the full investment lifecycle

Why Sikich

Deal centric perspective

We approach engagements through the lens of underwriting, execution, and value creation — not just compliance.

Integrated capabilities

Transaction advisory, accounting, tax, and operations working together across deal stages.

Actionable insights

Clear, practical recommendations aligned to deal terms and post close priorities.

Middle market focus

Deep experience supporting sponsor backed businesses through platform builds, add-ons, and exits.

Senior led execution

Hands on partner and principal involvement with scalable, responsive teams.
